

Midtown KC NOW is a nonprofit community and economic development agency. Our strength is fueled by relationships between businesses, neighborhoods, institutions, and individuals who live and work in Midtown. Midtown KC Now binds these interests together to work for the betterment of our community and the best quality of life for all.

We are committed to:

- Working with businesses and residents to create a long-term positive community environment with productive public and private relationships
- Supporting appropriate & responsible development that works for our urban environment, such as infill development, reduction of parking need, and creative placemaking efforts
- Working with all city departments, operating as a liaison between municipal, commercial, and residential interests
- Being a resource center to all of Midtown; if you have a concern, we can guide you toward a solution
- Encouraging healthy neighborhoods, walkability and multi-modal access with attractive streetscapes & solutions
- Operating community improvement districts that provide clean & safe programs
- Encouraging good and appropriate redevelopment
- Supporting business attraction and retention through promotion, networking and learning opportunities

Midtown KC Now administers and operates the following programs:

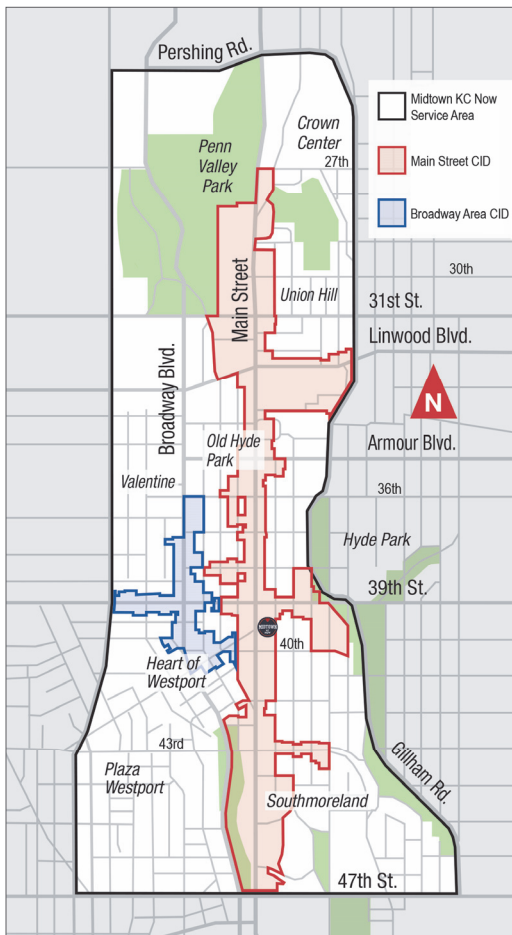

- Main Street Community Improvement District
- 39th & Main Business Center Association
- Broadway Area Community Improvement District
- Penn Valley Park Conservancy
